

CBAA participates in Quebec Government's celebration of ICAO's 80th Anniversary.

On 19 November, the CBAA's VP Regulatory Affairs, Bob Sincennes and International Business Aviation Council's (IBAC) Leo Knappen represented business aviation at a celebratory event hosted by the Quebec Premier at the National Assembly of Québec in Quebec City to mark ICAO's 80th anniversary and to reinforce the host province's continued support of ICAO.

The event was well attended and included the President of the ICAO Council Mr. Salvatore Sciacchitano, ICAO's Secretary General Mr. Juan Carlos Salazar, and various Government, Association and industry representatives.
