

Suncor

MAKING A DIFFERENCE DURING COVID-19

Suncor announced a donation of 40,000 N95 masks to the federal government in an effort to limit the spread of COVID-19. Three territories were chosen after the government identified them as communities in critical need of the supplies.

"It is our honour to be able to play our part alongside all Canadians in caring for each other through these challenging times" says Suncor.

THANK YOU!